НЕДІЛЯ БЛУДНОГО СИНА (о. Юліян Катрій, ЧСВВ)

"Глянь, Христе, на печаль мого серця, глянь на моє навернення, глянь на сльози, Спасе, і не відкинь мене!"
(Дев'ята пісня канону утрени неділі Блудного Сина).

Свята Церква, готуючи нас до Великого посту, вказала на перший крок до навернення у притчі про митаря і фарисея — це покора. А цієї неділі вона, наводячи притчу про блудного сина, вчить, як виглядає повернення до Бога в практиці. А де покора і скруха серця, там відкрита дорога до Божого милосердя.

Знавці Святого Письма називають притчу про блудного сина перлиною серед усіх притч. Вона має глибокоморальний зміст, а її драматична історія вічно повторюється в серцях тисяч і мільйонів душ у цілому світі. Блудний син — це символ кожної грішної душі. За допомогою цієї притчі переконуємося, що ніщо земне не може заспокоїти наше бажання щастя. Правдиве щастя і спокій тільки там, де Господь Бог, наш люблячий Батько. Деякі учителі духовного життя називають цю оповідь притчею про Божу любов.

Кожний, хто через гріх залишає Бога й шукає щастя поза Ним, рано чи пізно буде змушений сказати собі разом із блудним сином: "Встану та й піду до батька мого" (Лк. 15, 18), — та промовляти разом зі святим Августином, що довгі літа був блудним сином: "Неспокійне наше серце, Боже, доки не спочине в Тобі".

БЛУДНИЙ СИН — СИМВОЛ БОЖОГО МИЛОСЕРДЯ ДЛЯ ГРІШНИКА

Притча про блудного сина має для нас глибоко символічне значення. Осмислюючи її, ми спонтанно відчуваємо, що блудний син — це будь-хто з нас, кожна людина, яка через свої гріхи покидає Господа Бога. Тому ця притча для кожного така близька, бо є наче частиною інтимної історії нашого життя. Вона — це вічний символ нашої невірності щодо Господа Бога, але й символ безграничного Божого милосердя. Сьогоднішній світ роїться від блудних синів і доньок. Тож і сьогодні драма цієї притчі часто-густо повторюється у глибині сердець тисяч і мільйонів душ. Кожна людина є або тим старшим сином, що завжди вірний своєму батькові, або молодшим сином, який щойно через тяжкий і дуже болісний досвід життя переконується, що поза батьківським домом ніде нема щастя.

Ось приклад модерного блудного сина чи радше блудної доні. Часописи США з 14 квітня 1974 року подавали таку сенсаційну вістку: відома американська кінозірка і співачка Бетті Гаттон (Betty Hutton), яка в 40-их і 50-тих роках була відомою через свої фільми і пісні, навертається до Католицької Церкви і працює кухаркою в одній католицькій парафії у штаті Ровд Айленд. Що було причиною її навернення?

Послухаймо історію життя жінки, записану з її уст: "Я прогайнувала весь свій маєток і залишилася без засобів до життя. Вісім місяців тому я випадково зустріла католицького священика, який з милосердя прийняв мене за кухарку. Чотири рази я була заміжня, і всі мої шлюби були нещасливі, усі вони закінчилися розлученнями. Мої діти також не принесли мені щастя. Ніщо не давало мені правдивого щастя, аж доки я не пізнала католицьку віру. Я мала гроші, мала славу, але не була щаслива. Ще десять літ тому я заробляла на тиждень 150 тисяч доларів. Я не мала проблем з грошима. Зате любов стала моєю проблемою. Я мусила купувати любов, і так кожного купувала. Щойно коли я прийшла сюди, то зазнала милосердя католицького священика та побачила католицьку віру в практиці, то зрозуміла, що існує правдива любов".

Притча про блудного сина вчить нас, що Господь прощає і приймає навіть найбільшого грішника, коли той кається у своїх гріхах. Історія людського роду — це історія Божого милосердя. "Милосердя Господнє, — каже псалмопівець, — від віку й до віку, над тими, що бояться Його" (Пс. 103, 17).

Sunday of the Prodigal Son

[Commemorated on February 9]

<https://oca.org/saints/lives/2020/02/09/3-sunday-of-the-prodigal-son>

The Sunday after the Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee is the Sunday of the Prodigal Son. This parable of God's forgiveness calls us to "come to ourselves" as did the prodigal son, to see ourselves as being "in a far country" far from the Father's house, and to make the journey of return to God. We are given every assurance by the Master that our heavenly Father will receive us with joy and gladness. We must only "arise and go," confessing our self-inflicted and sinful separation from that "home" where we truly belong (Luke 15:11-24).

After the Polyeleion at Matins, we first hear the lenten hymn "By the Waters of Babylon.” It will be sung for the next two Sundays before Lent begins, and it serves to reinforce the theme of exile in today’s Gospel.

THE CONSECRATED LIFE

(from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

914 “The state of life which is constituted by the profession of the evangelical counsels, while not entering into the hierarchical structure of the Church, belongs undeniably to her life and holiness.” [453]

Evangelical counsels, consecrated life

915 Christ proposes the evangelical counsels, in their great variety, to every disciple. The perfection of charity, to which all the faithful are called, entails for those who freely follow the call to consecrated life the obligation of practicing chastity in celibacy for the sake of the Kingdom, poverty and obedience. It is the profession of these counsels, within a permanent state of life recognized by the Church, that characterizes the life consecrated to God. [454]

916 The religious state is thus one way of experiencing a “more intimate” consecration, rooted in Baptism and dedicated totally to God. [455] In the consecrated life, Christ’s faithful, moved by the Holy Spirit, propose to follow Christ more nearly, to give themselves to God who is loved above all and, pursuing the perfection of charity in the service of the Kingdom, to signify and proclaim in the Church the glory of the world to come. [456]

One great tree, with many branches

917 “From the God-given seed of the counsels a wonderful and wide-spreading tree has grown up in the field of the Lord, branching out into various forms of the religious life lived in solitude or in community. Different religious families have come into existence in which spiritual resources are multiplied for the progress in holiness of their members and for the good of the entire Body of Christ.” [457]

918 From the very beginning of the Church there were men and women who set out to follow Christ with greater liberty, and to imitate him more closely, by practicing the evangelical counsels. They led lives dedicated to God, each in his own way. Many of them, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, became hermits or founded religious families. These the Church, by virtue of her authority, gladly accepted and approved. [458]

919 Bishops will always strive to discern new gifts of consecrated life granted to the Church by the Holy Spirit; the approval of new forms of consecrated life is reserved to the Apostolic See. [459]

The eremitic life

920 Without always professing the three evangelical counsels publicly, hermits “devote their life to the praise of God and salvation of the world through a stricter separation from the world, the silence of solitude and assiduous prayer and penance.” [460]

921 They manifest to everyone the interior aspect of the mystery of the Church, that is, personal intimacy with Christ. Hidden from the eyes of men, the life of the hermit is a silent preaching of the Lord, to whom he has surrendered his life simply because he is everything to him. Here is a particular call to find in the desert, in the thick of spiritual battle, the glory of the Crucified One.

Religious life

925 Religious life was born in the East during the first centuries of Christianity. Lived within institutes canonically erected by the Church, it is distinguished from other forms of consecrated life by its liturgical character, public profession of the evangelical counsels, fraternal life led in common, and witness given to the union of Christ with the Church. [466]

926 Religious life derives from the mystery of the Church. It is a gift she has received from her Lord, a gift she offers as a stable way of life to the faithful called by God to profess the counsels. Thus, the Church can both show forth Christ and acknowledge herself to be the Savior's bride. Religious life in its various forms is called to signify the very charity of God in the language of our time.

927 All religious, whether exempt or not, take their place among the collaborators of the diocesan bishop in his pastoral duty. [467] From the outset of the work of evangelization, the missionary "planting" and expansion of the Church require the presence of the religious life in all its forms. [468] "History witnesses to the outstanding service rendered by religious families in the propagation of the faith and in the formation of new Churches: from the ancient monastic institutions to the medieval orders, all the way to the more recent congregations." [469]

Secular institutes

928 "A secular institute is an institute of consecrated life in which the Christian faithful living in the world strive for the perfection of charity and work for the sanctification of the world especially from within." [470]

929 By a "life perfectly and entirely consecrated to [such] sanctification," the members of these institutes share in the Church's task of evangelization, "in the world and from within the world," where their presence acts as "leaven in the world." [471] "Their witness of a Christian life" aims "to order temporal things according to God and inform the world with the power of the gospel." They commit themselves to the evangelical counsels by sacred bonds and observe among themselves the communion and fellowship appropriate to their "particular secular way of life." [472]

Societies of apostolic life

930 Alongside the different forms of consecrated life are "societies of apostolic life whose members without religious vows pursue the particular apostolic purpose of their society, and lead a life as brothers or sisters in common according to a particular manner of life, strive for the perfection of charity through the observance of the constitutions. Among these there are societies in which the members embrace the evangelical counsels" according to their constitutions. [473]

Consecration and mission: proclaiming the King who is coming

931 Already dedicated to him through Baptism, the person who surrenders himself to the God he loves above all else thereby consecrates himself more intimately to God's service and to the good of the Church. By this state of life consecrated to God, the Church manifests Christ and shows us how the Holy Spirit acts so wonderfully in her. and so the first mission of those who profess the evangelical counsels is to live out their consecration. Moreover, "since members of institutes of consecrated life dedicate themselves through their consecration to the service of the Church they are obliged in a special manner to engage in missionary work, in accord with the character of the institute." [474]

932 In the Church, which is like the sacrament - the sign and instrument - of God's own life, the consecrated life is seen as a special sign of the mystery of redemption. To follow and imitate Christ more nearly and to manifest more clearly his self-emptying is to be more deeply present to one's contemporaries, in the heart of Christ. For those who are on this "narrower" path encourage their brethren by their example, and bear striking witness "that the world cannot be transfigured and offered to God without the spirit of the beatitudes." [475]

933 Whether their witness is public, as in the religious state, or less public, or even secret, Christ's coming remains for all those consecrated both the origin and rising sun of their life:

For the People of God has here no lasting city, . . . [and this state] reveals more clearly to all believers the heavenly goods which are already present in this age, witnessing to the new and eternal life which we have acquired through the redemptive work of Christ and prelude to our future resurrection and the glory of the heavenly kingdom.
