“Christ is Risen - Indeed He is Risen” Easter Bake Sale

St. Mary's UCWLC would like to thank all who put orders in for the Pre-Order Easter Sale. Your support with this event is gratefully appreciated. Although we scaled back our event, we had the support from our parish and community.

With God's blessings,
Marlayne Andrijaszyn, President

Reminder: Our next UCWLC Meeting is Saturday, May 10 at 10:00 am

St. Mary's Parish is seeking to add a volunteer to the Booking Coordination Team for Parish Auditorium rentals. Duties would include being the main contact for rental inquiries and advertising. Knowledge using Word, Excel and Google Calendar is necessary. Good customer relations skills would be an asset. Opening, closing and dropping in at events may occasionally be required. A working knowledge of the English language is essential.

Please contact St. Mary's Parish Office by email (office@stmarysbc.com) or by phoning (604-879-5830), if you have an interest serving the Parish on the Booking Coordination Team.

Thomas Sunday

Thomas Sunday is the feast of St. Thomas, the Apostle. He is popularly dubbed as the “doubting Thomas” because of his unbelief in the appearance of the Risen Christ. St. Thomas, even upon seeing the resurrected Christ walk in through a closed door, required proof to mend his disbelief in the Resurrection. Jesus acknowledged this human need of Thomas and presented Thomas with the wounds of his crucifixion. He then invited him to put his finger in the nail marks in order to relieve Thomas’ doubts.

As we reflect on St. Thomas, the Apostle, we bring to mind our own doubts and place them before the Lord in prayer. He will, as with Thomas, invite us closer to the mystery so that we, too, may believe.

On this feast of St. Thomas, let us thank the Apostle for his courage to express his doubts of faith, because these same doubts led him to his firm and sure belief that Jesus indeed is his “Lord and God”. At the same time let us also pray that, like Thomas, we may grow in our faith by touching ‘the wounds’ of Jesus.

“Blessed are they who have not seen and yet believe.” John 20:29

Artos Bread

Artos - derived from the Greek word meaning wheaten bread, is the symbol for the bread of eternal life - Christ. This round loaf is covered with a metal plate bearing an icon of the Resurrected Christ.

The Artos is blessed by the priest on Easter morning. After it is blessed, the Artos is reserved on the altar or the tetrapod for the entire week.

On the Sunday of St. Thomas, the Artos is cut into small pieces and distributed to the faithful following the Divine Liturgy, at the time of myrovania (blessing with holy oil). The “Artos” symbolizes the Resurrected Christ, who appeared to the Apostles and took food with them.

According to Church tradition this custom was supposed to have its origin in Apostolic times. The Apostles, when sitting down to the table, would leave a vacant place for Jesus Christ, as well as a plate. At this spot they would place bread, reminding them of Jesus. The consuming of the “Artos” by the faithful on Thomas Sunday, symbolizes that after our own resurrection, Christ will give us Himself in eternal communion in His Heavenly Kingdom.
